On the Subject of Historical Phrases

"Who wants to read a book when you can blow something up?" – Rick Yancey

This module has a piece of paper on it that displays a famous historical quote and six buttons labelled with various inspirational words.

To solve this module, the correct action must be performed.
The correct action can be determined by following the list of questions below.
If the answer to a question is yes, move down one line in the list. If the answer is no, move down to the next line with the same indentation in the list.

Performing an incorrect action will result in a strike.

> Does the quote have more than 7 E's?
>> Does the bomb have more than 2 batteries?
>>> Does the quote have 9-14 words?
>>>> Does the quote have fewer than 4 S's?
>>>>> Press the first button.
>>>> Press the fourth button.
>>> Does the quote have an odd number of R's?
>>>> Does the author's name have a double-letter?
>>>>> Press the second button.
>>>> Press the third button.
>>> Does the quote contain fewer than 4 S's?
>>>> Press the third button.
>>> Press the second button.
>> Does the quote have an odd number of R's?
>>> Does the quote have a comma?
>>>> Press the fifth button.
>>> Press the second button.
>> Does the quote have fewer than 15 words?
>>> Press the first button.
>> Does the bomb have a lit indicator labelled CAR?
>>> Press the second button.
>> Press the sixth button.
> Does the author's name have a double-letter?
>> Does the quote have a comma?
>>> Does the bomb have a lit indicator labelled CAR?
>>>> Does the quote have an odd number of R's?
>>>>> Does the quote have 9-14 words?
>>>>>> Press the fifth button.
>>>>> Press the third button.
>>>> Does the quote have 9-14 words?
>>>>> Does the quote contain fewer than 4 S's?
>>>>>> Press the sixth button.

Press the second button.

Press the third button.

Does the quote have fewer than 10 words?

Press the first button.

Does the quote have fewer than 4 S's?

Press the fifth button.

Press the third button.

Does the bomb have a vowel in the serial number?

Does the quote have an odd number of R's?

Does the quote have 9-14 words?

Press the fourth button.

Press the fifth button.

Does the quote have fewer than 4 S's?

Press the second button.

Press the fourth button.

Does the quote have 9-14 words?

Does the quote have fewer than 4 S's?

Press the first button.

Does the quote have an odd number of R's?

Press the third button.

Does the bomb have more than 2 batteries?

Press the sixth button.

Press the fourth button.

Does the quote have more than 5 E's?

Press the first button.

Press the fourth button.

Does the bomb have a vowel in the serial number?

Does the quote have 9-14 words?

Does the quote have an odd number of R's?

Does the bomb have a lit indicator labelled CAR?

Press the first button.

Press the fifth button.

Does the quote have a comma?

Press the fourth button.

Press the second button.

Press the sixth button.

Does the quote have a comma?

Does the bomb have more than 2 batteries?

Press the first button.

Press the sixth button.

Does the quote have fewer than 4 S's?

Does the quote have fewer than 10 words?

Press the fifth button.

Press the fourth button.

Does the quote have more than 5 E's?

Press the sixth button.

Press the third button.